LIFE AT CAMP LEWIS

A TROPICO BOY THROWS SIDE LIGHTS ON LIFE IN A TRAINING CAMP

Mrs. Andrew Stephenson has quite an interesting collection of kodak pictures of her son, Corporal Dwight Stephenson, and his comrades at Camp Lewis in various poses. Lorenzo Reifenberick appears in several of the pictures, and he and Dwight have renewed the friendship they began in grammar school days in Tropico, when Lorenzo and his parents lived in Hotel Tropico; but Lorenzo has now been sent to San Antonio with the Signal Corps.

Dwight writes of rumors circulating about the camp that the 91st Division will probably be sent on to "somewhere in the eastern part of the U. S." about the first of January, and that the remainder of the Depot Brigade is to be left at Camp Lewis to assist with the new draft that will be coming on. Dwight is in the Depot Brigade, so he fears his chances of reaching France for the big spring drive are rather slim.

His letters are full of interesting side lights on army camp life, and Mrs. Stephenson kindly consented to allow a few extracts to be made from them. The first relates to

Thanksgiving

He writes: "Thanksgiving has come and gone and, considering it is the very first one I ever spent away from you, I got along in good shape. All the morning our thoughts were full of the dinner we were to have, and all the afternoon our stomachs were so full of what we had, that we could not think. It was surely a gala occasion.

"We decorated the mess hall with autumn leaves and pine boughs until it looked quite cosy. I have already sent you the menu, so you could see we had plenty to eat, and it was well cooked. Two lieutenants, one of our own and one from another company ate dinner with us (non-commissioned officers) and seemed to enjoy it. After dinner we sat around the table and smoked, told stories, sang songs, and in general had a good time. The only thing that was lacking was the faces of those we love so dearly, but as you were with us in our thoughts and we knew you were thinking of us, it helped a great deal."

In another letter Dwight writes of war insurance, saying:

Insurance

"Yesterday and today I have been selling war risk insurance to the men of our company. In these two days I have sold $320,000 worth, so it looks as though I should have been an insurance agent instead of a lawyer.

Lawyer Needed

"Speaking of practicing law, today for an hour or so I was a lawyer again. We have been having the men make out allotments of their pay under the new law which provides that each man must allot one-half his pay to a dependent, to pay insurance or payments on liberty bonds, or to the government to hold for him until he is killed or the war is over. About every five minutes something would come up in regard to the allotments which the Company Commander was not clear on, so he asked me to go through the Act and be prepared to answer any questions about it the men might want to know. Up to this time I had thought every occupation, trade or profession except that of a lawyer was of use in some way in the army, and now I find that once in a while even a lawyer is of some use.

"I had no sooner finished studying the Allotment Act, and settled down to selling insurance than one of the boys who was going to the hospital to undergo an operation, wanted his will drawn, so again my legal talents were requisitioned."

Approves Consolidation

Referring to home affairs, the Corporal writes:

"I surely was mighty glad to hear that Tropico and Glendale are now one, for I fully believe it was the very best move that Tropico could make. I hope when I return it will be to a united community, with everyone working for the common good."

TO DEDICATE SERVICE FLAG

A special feature of the morning service at the Tropico Methodist church next Sunday, will be the dedication of a Service Flag bearing six stars to represent the young men who have gone from that church to training camps. The sermon which will follow the dedication will not be upon the war though its subject has a martial sound. Pastor Cory has announced it as "Weapons for Home Protection," and it is capable of a good many interpretations.

KEEP ON KNITTING

RED CROSS MANAGER URGES WOMEN TO CONTINUE GOOD WORK

Harvey D. Gibson, General Manager of the American Red Cross, authorizes the following statements:

"A great number of inquiries are being received by the Red Cross from women knitters throughout the United States as to whether they should discontinue knitting.

"The Red Cross, therefore desires to place before the women of this country its conception of the knitting situation. As is well known it is the policy of the Red Cross to supplement so far as it has the power, the efforts of the Army and Navy in conserving the health and comfort of our soldiers and sailors, either in this country or abroad.

"Sweaters and other knitted articles are designed primarily for warmth. They certainly are not ornamental. Therefore it must follow that when there is an almost universal demand on the part of our soldiers and sailors for sweaters and other knitted articles the demand is a real one. Such articles, therefore, can only be classed as equipment, supplementary though they may be, to that furnished by the Army and Navy. And they undoubtedly constitute equipment that will add greatly to the health and comfort of our men under conditions generally met with.

"The Red Cross knows that the soldiers and sailors want sweaters and other knitted articles. These goods can be obtained from the Red Cross in single garments only upon individual request; or if in bulk, then upon the request of a commanding officer. How great the need is, is best evidenced by the fact that in addition to the hundreds of thousands of knitted articles produced by our Red Cross chapters in the last few months we have been compelled to purchase 550,000 extra sweaters alone to meet the insistent demand made upon us by our men for them. We are sorry that we had to do any purchasing at all because we know how much the soldiers and sailors of this country prefer the sweaters and other articles knitted by the women of this country.

"It may be understood further that in addition to the demands of our Army and Navy we have very urgent demands from Commissions abroad for like articles for destitute civilian populations—men, women and children—who, if not actually homeless are very scantily clad and usually without fuel, in this cold weather, to warm their houses.

"It is hoped that this general statement will satisfy the women of this country who have been devoting all their possible time to knitting for our men. We cannot too strongly urge all women who are now knitting to keep on knitting."

WIGGINS-HARRELL

At 8 o'clock on Thursday evening, December 6, at the home of the bride, 457 East Second street, Mrs. Harriet Reed Harrell was married to W. W. Wiggins, of Los Angeles, Rev. B. D. Snudden officiating. The wedding was a very quiet though a very pretty one, and only immediate friends being present. The house was decorated most effectively with a profusion of beautiful greenery and white carnations. The ceremony was performed beneath a beautiful white wedding bell. The bride wore a lovely gown of white lace and net. The ring was made from gold highly prized by the bride because of early associations, having been taken years ago from a mine then owned by her. A delicious supper was served, the bride herself cutting an elaborate wedding cake. Chocolate was poured by Mrs. Hattie Gaylord. Those present besides the bride and groom were: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wiggins of Alhambra, Mr. and Mrs. T. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Kneib of Los Angeles, Mrs. Hattie Gaylord and Rev. and Mrs. Snudden. This afternon and evening Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins will receive at their home for their friends. From three until five o'clock they will hold a reception for the ladies of the W. C. T. U., the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Methodist Church and the Sisterhood class with the husbands, and in the evening they will be at home to the I. O. G. T. lodge and especially to friends of Mr. Wiggins.

STEAMER JACOB JONES SUNK

SIXTY MEMBERS OF CREW OF AMERICAN DESTROYER JACOB JONES ARE STILL MISSING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, December 8.—The American destroyer, Jacob Jones, was sunk by a German submarine at 8 o'clock Thursday night while doing patrol duty in foreign waters. Only 37 survivors of the crew have been picked up, the navy department announced this afternoon. This would indicate that 66 men have been lost, although others may be safe.

The Jacob Jones was commanded by Lieut. Com. David Worth Bagley, a brother of Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the secretary of the navy. Mrs. Daniels lost another brother in the navy during the Spanish-American war. He was Ensign Worth Bagley, who fell at Matanzas as the first casualty of that war.

The survivors of the Jacob Jones were taken off from life rafts. The names of the first ten survivors thus far learned are: Lieut. J. G. K. Richards, Ensign Nelson N. Gates, Asst. Surgeon L. L. Abankiewicz, Charles N. Pierce, Timothy Edward Twomy, Henry A. Stutske, Edward F. Grady, John L. Mulvaney, Byron Myron Flood.

This is the second American warship sunk by German torpedoes. The Jacob Jones was one of the new type of oil-burning destroyers completed in 1916. It had a speed of 30 knots, was 310 feet long and had a capacity of 1090 tons.

The bandits escaped toward Venice in a high-powered machine. A sheriff's posse is in pursuit.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN ITALY, December 8.—French troops are in action today against the ever-increasing masses of Austro-Germans. It is plain that Germany is preparing for a supreme effort to break through the Italian line. The battle all along the line is becoming heavier. Heavy artillery is being brought up, men, guns and material are being massed, the shell fire grows more violent and the final grand assault is expected soon. The allies likewise are showing evidence of increasing strength on the Piave river line.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE

HARLAND DURAND AND FRANK BALTHIS WIN FROM LINCOLN HIGH

On Friday evening the various High schools of the debating league to which the G. U. H. S. belongs debated, with two teams each, the question: "Resolved, that the U. S. Government should take over the management of the Coal mines." At Santa Ana, Pomona, Pasadena and Glendale this question was vigorously contended, and in each instance the affirmative won. The Glendale teams debated Lincoln at Lincoln High School, Harland Durand and Frank Balthis winning a well fought contest against Miss Grace Saxon and Mr. Earl Thompson, with all three judges giving them the decision. A good attendance from Glendale was present, about twenty having gone down from here. At Glendale Myron Powers and Berna Martin, in the negative, lost the debate to the team from Pomona, Miss Dorothy Pierce and Hartley Caldwell being the victors, also by unanimous decision of the judges, though Glendale did some excellent work especially in rebuttal, which is the proof of quick thinking, and in which Berna Martin, in particular quite shone in good points well taken. Pomona sent a small but enthusiastic representation and the hall was filled with the cheers and yells of both sides again and again during the evening, the finest spirit of sportsmanship being shown in the applause each school received from the other. At Lincoln High School Harland Durand, in his rebuttal especially, as well as his excellent speech and smooth delivery, was reported to be the star of the evening.

DEATH OF FRANK LUTHER

Friday, at mid-day, death came to Frank Luther, of 522 Glendale avenue, Tropico. He had been ill for about four years, and confined to his bed for several months.

Information has been received from Mrs. Luther that funeral services over the remains of her husband will be held at the Holy Family Catholic Church, in Glendale, Monday morning at 9 a. m. Relatives who are all in the east, have telegraphed it will be impossible for them to attend. The body will be taken east for interment.

Mr. Luther was born in Indiana nearly 39 years ago and was one of a large family of children. He grew up in Cincinnati where his mother and younger brothers and sisters still reside. Seven years ago he came to California and has lived ever since that time in Tropico, where he made many friends. He is survived by his widow, Frederica Luther, and his little daughter, Frederica. He came of a family of patriots, his father, who died two years ago, having served in the Civil War. Two brothers are now in the service of Uncle Sam, viz., Dennis Luther with the aviation corps in France, Aloysius Luther in the Pittsburg Navy Yard. Other brothers and sisters are: Mrs. C. C. Smith of Detroit, Walter Luther of Cleveland, Ohio, James Luther, Trenton, New Jersey, John, Charles, Mrs. Happe, Henry, Julius and Matilda Luther in Cincinnati.

Frank Luther was in the sewing machine business for 18 years, part of the time with the White company, and part of the time with the Singer company. He built up quite a business in this locality and was well known to many users of machines. He will be missed in the community on many accounts.

HIS BICYCLE SKIDDED

Ralph Railsback, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Railsback of 1615 West Seventh street, was painfully injured at about five-thirty this morning while delivering Los Angeles "Examiners" on his bicycle. At the corner of Third and Louise his wheel skidded because of striking a stone which had been thrown into the street by school boys who thoughtlessly consider this dangerous game as attractive sport. The boy was thrown violently, spraining his arm and bruising him severely. James T. McClelland, who owns the apartments at the corner of Third and Louise, came to his rescue and called a doctor, who took the boy to his own home. While his injuries are extremely painful, he very fortunately was not seriously hurt and hopes to be able to be in school again on Monday.

HEAR THE GOVERNOR

As has been previously announced, Governor Stephens will speak in the Auditorium of the Glendale High School this evening at 8 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

Very cordially yours,

FROM WYOMING

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Goetz, formerly of Glendale, send the following newspaper clipping to the Glendale Evening News for publication. Mr. Goetz was formerly connected with the Espesero De Verdugo grocery store. While he and his family like California very much, Wyoming being Mr. Goetz's boyhood home there was always a longing for the freedom of the plains. He now owns a fine cattle ranch near Laramie, Wyo.

"Sand Creek, Wyo., Nov. 30.—The dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goetz was well attended. The night being beautiful, everyone came early so as not to miss any of the fun. A new polished floor was the first thing that met our eyes, and it wasn't long before everyone was enjoying themselves. Dancing began at half past 8 and let up at 5 o'clock. A delicious supper was served at midnight by Mrs. Goetz and ladies."

SURPRISE DINNER PARTY

Mrs. E. LeRoy Messler, of 1425 Burchett avenue, surprised her husband with a dinner party last Thursday evening, in celebration of his birthday.

A red and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations of the living room and dining room with red and white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lehman and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thornburgh were the fortunate guests who participated in the surprise. They are residents of Pasadena.

There will be a musical service by a Japanese choir at the Casa Verdugo Methodist church on Sunday evening, December 9th, which promises to be highly pleasing. All members and friends who are able to attend will enjoy this unusual treat.

Frank Hitchcock and his mother, Mrs. Hitchcock, have returned from Tujunga to theor own home at 1618 West Seventh street. Mrs. Frank Hitchcock is at one of the hospitals in Los Angeles and the two children, Little Nettie and Master Edward, are visiting with an aunt in Los Angeles.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. H. H. Parker, the morning business meeting of Chapter B. A. of P. E. O. was held at the home of Mrs. A. L. Weaver, 235 South Kenwood street, Friday at 10 a. m. A constitutional quiz game, led by Mrs. Weaver, afforded much amusement as well as profit. Mrs. Archie Parker who was the winner, received a dainty handkerchief as a prize.

F. A. Field, of 239 South Kenwood, has been entertaining a number of guests during the past week. On Tuesday Mr. Field's cousin, Mrs. H. H. Hopkins, of Los Angeles, came out for the afternoon and remained as a dinner guest, Mrs. Arthur A. Lewis, of 241 South Kenwood, also being present. On Thursday Mrs. J. A. Trau, of Los Angeles, came out for the week end and on Friday Mrs. J. J. Davis and Mrs. R. P. Isitt were luncheon guests.

Mrs. Shellabear, who is a Methodist missionary to China, and has been stopping at the Bible Institute in Los Angeles, was the guest on Friday of Mrs. Newton, 308 Belmont avenue, having come to Glendale on the sad mission of visiting her brother's grave. Mr. Joseph Ferris, the deceased, died about two years ago while under the care of Mrs. Newton and during his sister's absence in China. Mrs. Shellabear is on her return trip to that country at the present time.

Second Lieutenant Frederick H. Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Nichols of 223 South Adams street, writes from American Lake of his work at Camp Lewis. He has been assigned to the training of raw recruits, having drilled several companies of drafted men from the mission districts of San Francisco, a large majority of whom are foreigners. After several weeks of preliminary drill the men of these new companies are distributed to fill vacancies in various places ranging from San Diego to New York. The work is difficult and very trying in many instances but is most interesting, nevertheless, he writes. He also states that the weather has been very conducive to a welcome reception for warm sweaters, a snow storm having been among the recent new experiences for the boys from California.

Mrs. D. H. Smith entertained Friday at her home, 146 South Maryland avenue, for Chapter A. T. P. E. O., of Los Angeles, and invited guests. A delicious two-course luncheon was served at 12:30, followed by the usual order of business. Mrs. Patience Beatty, of Chapter I., Los Angeles, then led in a very interesting parliamentary drill. The members present were: Mesdames Stahl, Parker, Bartlett, of Pasadena; Mesdames Beatty, Love, Hammond, Noble, Gee, Townsend, Webber, Freeman, Van Norman, of Los Angeles; Mrs. A. C. Read of Glendale. Invited guests were Mrs. John Hobbs, Mrs. Noble Ripley and Mrs. J. A. Logan, of Chapter A. H., Tropico. Mrs. J. Hunchberger and Mrs. C. W. Burkett, of Chapter L; and Mrs. C. B. Guthrie and Mrs. Arthur Cross of B. A., Glendale.

TODAY!

"Now is the accepted time." "Today, if you will hear his voice." The only time we have is today. "Not ready—I'll buy some insurance from you later. I'll call you up." An agent writes: "Brown promised me that last fall, but he died in the spring, and his home is being foreclosed this week. His family is going to live with relatives. Don't you think it's about time he was calling me up, or don't you think his line is burnt out?"

How can a man dally with fate when all he holds dear is in jeopardy? Why must we urge and plead with men to do the thing that is so imperative?

Don't delay—do it today!

Account of Culver City bank robbery is published in United Press news on first page.

Miss Eula Richardson took a "hike" Saturday morning to Muir Cabin, the headquarters of the Sierra Club in the Sierra Madre mountains, where she expected to spend the night.

Peter Otis, whose home has been on West Seventh street, has exchanged property in Los Angeles for two houses in Glendale, one on West Seventh, opposite his former residence, and one at 1715 West Vine street, where he has moved and expects to make his future home.

Dr. Harvey V. Brown, of 111 South Central street, who has an office in the Hollingsworth Building in Los Angeles, will also hold office hours at his residence from now on. Dr. and Mrs. Brown moved here recently from Boyle Heights, and have already taken active part in Eastern Star and other social work in Glendale.

Mrs. Sarah Gaddis, with her son and daughter, Miss Amy and Mr. Robert Gaddis, has arrived from Chicago to join her daughter, Miss Jessie, who came out to Glendale from Los Angeles about two months ago and rented the house at 466 West Fifth street in anticipation of her family's arrival. The family expects to make Glendale a permanent home.

KNITTING PARTY

Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger entertained on Friday afternoon at her home, 344 Central avenue, with a very lovely little knitting party. This is the first of a series of three of these patriotic affairs at which the guests are to be encouraged to the maximum of production by an attractive prize offered for the greatest output. The house was made especially inviting with the pretty decorations of pink carnations in both living room and dining room. Mrs. A. W. Tower was awarded an attractive leather bound book for her enthusiastic application to the cause of the Red Cross work. After a delightful social afternoon enjoyed even during the course of strict adherence to the business in hand, a delicious two-course "Hoover" luncheon was served in the dining room. The invited guests were: Mesdames W. E. Evans, A. W. Tower, Lawrence Ellis, W. Roberts, Wilbur McFadden, Walter Stamps, E. Tholen, H. P. Goodwin, Edward Lynch, Harry Lynch, A. L. Weaver, R. Boyer, Albert Pearce, Charles Temple and H. Martin.

EAST SIDE RED CROSS

The East Side Red Cross unit No. 1 met on Thursday at the home of Mrs. Cora M. Nichols, 223 South Adams street, and completed the work of November which was turned in to the Glendale headquarters the same day. This little group of enthusiastic workers is turning out some very creditable work. Besides the list printed below which gives the amount of work finished from Red Cross materials, a number of sweaters have been completed and sent to the boys at Dead Man's Island from material donated by mothers and friends of the boys for this especial purpose, even some of the boys themselves having subscribed toward the fund for materials for these sweaters. The articles sent to Red Cross headquarters were: 8 sweaters, 16 scarfs, 11 pairs of wristlets, 1 pair of socks, 8 hospital bed shirts and 3 surgeons' aprons.

COMPLETE LIST FOR PUBLICATION

Mail or deliver in person to the Evening News office the name of son, brother or near friend who is in the United States service from Glendale, Tropico, Casa Verdugo, La Canada, La Crescenta, Tujunga or Sunland, giving the department of the war in which he is serving. Also giving local address from which enlistment was made. Write names in full and write legibily.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY

A very delightful card party was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. A. L. Lewis at her home, 241 South Kenwood, for the benefit of the boys of Company 8, California Coast Artillery, who are not already provided with sweaters. The success of the charming little affair was two-fold, as the guests were most gracefully entertained and took keen pleasure in both the amusement of the afternoon and the gratifying financial result, which assures enough yarn for seven warm, comfortable sweaters for boys who could not otherwise afford them. The house was lovely, with big yellow marigolds forming the keynote of the decorations throughout the rooms. The entrance was beautifully arranged with flags. Thirteen tables of auction bridge were played, Mrs. George Mitchell winning high score and Mrs. A. W. Bridge taking second place. The whole plan of the afternoon was carried out on lines of simplicity in harmony with the patriotic idea of conservation and conclusively proved that elaboration is unnecessary for attractive effects and for enjoyment. Delicious refreshments were very daintily served at the end of the afternoon. Mrs. Lewis was assisted in entertaining by the following hostesses: Mesdames C. O. Pulliam, Herbert Smith, D. H. Smith, Herman Paine, Stephen C. Packer, J. L. Flint, H. H. Faries, Everitt Barnes, W. E. Guthrie, Cross and Mrs. H. A. Strothoff of Los Angeles. Among the out of town guests were, Mrs. Walter Purviance of Los Angeles, and Mrs. William Harvey's guest, Mrs. Anderson, of Chicago, who is now visiting in Hollywood. Mrs. Drew Nicoles is in charge of the workers who have offered their services to making up the yarn to be purchased for these sweaters. She has received volunteer offers from a number of Glendale ladies and from several of the force of salewomen in Coulter's department store of Los Angeles. Mrs. Lewis plans to give another of these happy affairs after the holidays, further to swell the fund for this cause so that not one of the boys in "our" company need be exposed unecessarily to the unaccustomed climatic conditions which may so easily cause needless sacrifice of life.

NOTICE OF GAS HEARING

The people of Glendale are invited to be present at the next regular meeting of the Board of Trustees, City Hall, Thursday, December 13, at 8 o'clock.

The question of the purchase and operation of the Gas system by the City of Glendale will be taken up and discussed at this meeting.

The raise in the gas rate from 68 cents to 80 cents per 1000 cubic feet went into effect December 6th.

The engineer employed by the city to report on the gas situation has sent in his report. It will be gone into at this meeting. 82t6

E. Z. AUTO STARTER

I have taken the agency of this starter or primer. It can be used on any auto, and is a necessity on a self-starter or a hand-cranking machine. A lady or child can start a Ford machine on a cold morning without the least trouble. All the high priced self-starting machine that are being sold today are equipped with some such device.

It is an absolute fact that gas admitted direct in top of manifold eliminates the difficulty of starting.

The retail price is $2.50. But in order to introduce them in Glendale, I will install them on your machines Monday, Dec. 10th, for $1.75 each, and if you are not satisfied after 3 days' trial, come back and I will return your money.

RED CROSS BAZAAR AND CHICKEN DINNER

Residents of Glendale and vicinity are urged not to forget the Red Cross Bazaar and the fine chicken dinner at the Elks Club Rooms next Friday, December 14.

This chicken dinner is promised to be well worth attending, being under the able and efficient direction of the ladies of the First Christian Church, who are doing their bit for the Red Cross cause through their untiring efforts, not to forget a single detail, in order that every patron shall be fully satisfied.

During the course of the dinner a musical program is intended to be rendered, followed later in the evening by a very fine entertainment, full program to be announced later.

All this entertainment will be free as will also the admission to the bazaar.

The management is planning for a record crowd and it is their desire that the greatest majority of the Glendale and surrounding townspeople attend, sometime during the day or evening.

The fancy work and other items which will be on sale are coming in rapidly and all donators are earnestly requested to get their bit in at the earliest possible time now, so that space may be allotted.

Remember any article or item which will be saleable—and at the same time bring in a little extra money for this very worthy cause, to the Glendale Red Cross will be greatly appreciated. Send in anything you are able to make this a record sale and be a booster for a glorious cause. Remember the date, Friday, December 14. Bazaar will be open at 10 a. m.; dinner served at 6 p. m.; grand free entertainment at 8 p. m.

HIKE AND SURPRISE PARTY

A party of High School young folks enjoyed a hike last Friday to Griffith Park, starting out at 9:30 in the morning and making a whole day of festivities. The lunch was taken over in William Strong's car and a number of hikers decided to return by machines in the evening, though a number valiantly clung to the original object of the expedition and walked all the way back. Miss Dorothy Haig and Miss Mildred Swensen were the originators of the plan and Mrs. A. O. Whaley was the chaperone. The day was so successful in every particular and the young guests were so reluctant to have their good time over, that another party was planned by way of a surprise for Miss Dorothy Haig on her birthday, Wednesday, December 5th, at her home, 1008 San Rafael avenue. This surprise was carried out with gratifying success, both guests and impromptu hostess enjoying the evening hugely. The girls had brought a delicious little supper and the boys came provided with the amusement for the evening in the form of taffy all ready to pull. Later in the evening there was dancing to the music of the Victrola. Those present, all having attended both affairs, were: Misses Ruby Stone, Dorothy Haig, Evelyn Williams, Josephine Van Sant, Ila May MacClanny, Muriel McKenzie, Mildren Swensen and Eva Green, and Ralph Current, Harry Moore, Owen Showalter, Howard Thompson, Howard Merriken, Tom Lyons, Bill Strong and Kenneth Whaley.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Pupils of the Keller School of Dancing are looking forward to their annual fancy dress, Christmas party which will ths year be given December 22d, at Butler's Hall in Glendale from two to four o'clock. There will be a Christmas tree, and a special orchestra will add to the importance of the occasion. The program will feature the smaller children and will be of special interest. While the party will be for pupils and their parents, a few invitations will be issued on request.

BEGINS PROFESSIONAL LIFE

Wednesday Mr. Pantages "tried out" Merna and Merle Kahler, of Tropico, by placing them on the bill at Pantages in several dancing numbers, at a special matinee. The children made a tremendous hit, the audience going wild over them, especially Merna, and encoring them repeatedly. Mr. Pantages was entirely satisfied and has listed them on the bill in Los Angeles for week after next. After that he will put Merna on the circuit and begin training her for a career as a star. He pronounced her a wonderful child and says she has a great future. Her mother will accompany her on the road and she will have the instruction of tutors. Merle is in school, where his mother wishes him to remain, so he will be on the stage but the one week in Los Angeles. Merne has had all her training from the Pearl Keller School, of which she has been a pupil two years. Tropico may yet hear great things of the talented little girl who has so frequently danced for our entertainment.

YEOMEN CONFERENCE

Members of the Yeomen Lodge had a "comfy" informal meeting in the Lodge Hall last Friday evening at which some bursiness was transacted and plans were discussed while the women worked on bazaar fancy work. In these days when the Red Cross overshadows all other interests, it is hard to put a woman in any place in which she will not bring out some knitting or sewing.

The next meeting will be the monthly dance on the 14th.
